Subject: Thank you

Laura,

Our engagement party Saturday for Richard's nephew and his fiancée was a rousing success. People raved about the food, and the items from Bon Appétit elevated my homemade items as well – so I thank you for the boost there. Just as you predicted, the pulled pork atop sweet potato cakes were a huge hit. In fact, I think people were in awe of the combination. Be sure to tell Gene or whoever concocted that delicious item.

Packaging was delightful, too. We are huge fans! Thank you so very much.

Kind regards,
